C I R C U L A R TO THE COMMUNITY
From Election Committee

We the under named at the bottom of the page were appointed as members of the Election Committee by the outgoing Managing Committee in their meeting held on 3 Dec.2011. Our mandate was to hold the election for the new office bearers to run the affairs of Memon Jamat Saudi Arabia (MASA) for the next two years 2012 and 2013. The Managing Committee also in their meeting voted in favour of holding the election on panel basis.

We are pleased to inform you that the committee met on 7 Dec.2011 to discuss the schedule of MASA's election and agreed to announced the election and ask for nominations.

The announcement was made on 10 Dec.2011 requesting interested contestants to form their panels and submit their list of names with the designated positions in one week. In response to our announcement, we received nomination from only one panel within the time limit.

Candidates' scrutiny and eligibility was done and the Committee found one nominated official was ineligible. The panel replaced him with another eligible candidate and by virtue of it being the sole contesting panel, the Committee is pleased to declared it ELECTED unopposed. The unopposed elected members of the panel for 2012-2013 are as follows:

President	Arif Abdul Majeed Memon
Vice President	Younus Habib Goli
Vice President	Mansour A.R. Shivani
General Secretary	Tayyab K. Moosani
Joint Secretary	Abdul Rashid Kasmani
Treasurer	Shoaib Sikander

Sayyidina Abu Dhar (RadhiAllahu anho) narrates that Rasulallah (Sallallahu Alaihi Wasallam) was asked:

Which words are the best?

He (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam) replied:
The words that Allah Subhanahu wa ta'ala has chosen for His angels, or His slaves:

Subhanallahu wabihamdihi

(Glory be to Allah who is above all faults,

THE HYPOCRITES

THIS IS TRUE. The hypocrite goes out claiming that he is with both parties. He shows a false belief and friendship to both sides. And, this makes him to be an insincere believer or friend to either side. When a believer comes in saying that he believes; and then goes out saying he disbelieves, then he lied at first and he lies going out. This is why a hypocrite cannot be accepted by anyone as being sincere. After you have accepted the truth and declared it to be the truth, if you who come over to follow me to Allah turn your backs on the Truth, we have it in black and white that you declare yourself to be a believer in Allah and His Messages, and His Messenger.

A person who seeks to please everybody even if it demands his cheating, lying or stealing. Allah says in this regard in Sura Al-Munafiqun:

When the hypocrites come to thee, they say, 'We bear witness that thou art indeed the Apostle of God.' Yea, God knoweth that thou art indeed His Apostle, and God beareth witness that the hypocrites are indeed liars. (63:1)

These situations, factors and prerequisites may lead a person to be a hypocrite. The only way to cure this disease from people is that they should have faith in Allah, in His Messenger, Muhammad (pbuh), in the Day of Judgment and in the teachings of Islam. Even if he/she has a weak faith, he should try his/her best to strengthen it, and to enrich it daily.

Therefore, it is a matter of having faith (Iman) or having no faith. Nifaq, hence is noticed and observed in those societies, in those families, and those individuals who, either have no faith, or who are weak in their faith.

The signs of a hypocrite are many among which are the following three signs:

1. He lies whenever he talks.
2. He does not fulfill his commitment.
3. He betrays the trust that he takes.

In this regard Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) said (Reported by Abu Hurayrah):

The signs of a hypocrite are three: when he speaks, he lies; when he gives an agreement, he does not fulfill his commitment; and when he is entrusted, he betrays the trust.

For this reason Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) informed us that a hypocrite is a mischievous person. He said: (Reported by Abu Hurayrah)

You will find that the worst person is double-faced; he meets one group of people with one side of his face, while another with the other side.

Since this vice is most hated by Allah and His Messenger, and since the penalty is very heavy, may I request you to kindly check upon yourselves. Check your Iman, your personality, your character, your manners, your behavior and your daily activities. Then try to find out whether you are acting like a real Muslim or Not.

Happy New Year

If you do not act immediately, remember that life is short, and who knows for how long you are to live! Death may be as close to us as a twinkling of an eye. Hence, we should be prepared to face Allah Almighty with happiness and not with sorrows or sadness.

May Almighty Allah bless us all. Ameen

Tears are more expensive than smile

"We learn more by looking for the answer to a question and not finding it than we do from learning the answer itself."

Consider how hard it is to change yourself and you'll understand what little chance you have in trying to change others.

Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up.

"Respect your efforts, respect yourself. Self-respect Leads to self-discipline. When you have both firmly Under your belt, that's real power."

"Tears are more expensive than a smile because you can give a smile to anyone you want, but the tears fall only for the best person..."

The only difference between stumbling blocks and steppingstones is the way in which we use them.

Write the bad things that are done to you in sand, but write the good things that happen to you on a piece of marble.

Ever tried? Ever failed? No matter. Try Again. Fail Again. Fail better.

A wise soul opens the window to the future by closing the doors to the past.
Life without trust is a life in turmoil.

Happiness is inward and not outward; and so it does not depend on what we have, but on what we are.

Health is Wealth

Money matters. Since time immemorial, mankind has always strived to find money sources. Even in the ancient times, money makes and unmakes people. There are many stories of treasure hunts and even up to the current generation, myths about hidden treasures all around the world still circulate.

Mankind has really put greater value on wealth among all other things in the world. Unfortunately, wealth is hard to catch. People know that wealth is something they must work hard for. As people strived harder to amass wealth, there came a new concept about the real value of the word.

Health is wealth. Such is a simple sentence but its sense and meaning is so tremendous and deep. Through the years, in all societies around the world, health has become synonymous and equivalent to the value of wealth.

There is syllogism and analogy between the two different concepts. Health is as valuable as money. That is because without it, you surely would not enjoy anything in life. You would not be able to appreciate the beauty of each day and live up to acknowledge the joys that come to even the simplest encounters with family and friends.

Without health, people would not be able to work productively. Thus, there would be little chances and opportunities for earning and doing jobs. People need to work to be able to generate income. But one cannot work if he is ill and is incapable to do physical activities. Even office jobs entail good health of employees because through experiences and history, people have determined that without good physical condition, the mental state would also be affected.

How to have good health

You need to do measures to attain good and lasting health. Doing so would enable you maximize your body's capacity and you could take as much opportunities to earn more and live better. Here are some simple, yet effective guidelines that would help you attain and maintain good health.

1. Live a good and healthy lifestyle. Most jobs today entail stationary lifestyles: workers are required to sit down in front of computers the whole day. Many executives stay inside the premises of the office sitting around while attending meetings and doing paper works. It is logical that many workers nowadays do not get enough physical exercise. Thus, many tend to become obese, hypertensive and weak. Go to the gym at least every other day and work out so that you could sweat all your fats and cholesterol accumulation all out.
2. Eat nutritious and a balanced diet. There are so many processed food available in the market. Fast food chains are also immensely popular. However, if you loyally and regularly patronize such foods, you would get bloated. That is because it has been found that processed and fast foods are the main culprits for obesity cases because of their fat content. Eat more fruits and vegetables, avoid lard and fatty foods and prefer healthy foods.
3. Quit unhealthy vices and habits. Smoking is the top bad habit. Time and again, health regulators have always warned about the dangers of smoking. Aside from causing lung cancer, the habit is also cited for several severe medical cases like bronchitis, cough, asthma and even early onset of aging. Drinking too much alcoholic beverages is equally bad as well as substance abuse.
